OGDEN.

The Branch Office of THE HERALD is in the Woodmansee Block, Main Street, second floor, C. A. Smarthritis, Agent.

We are at all times glad to receive communications from correspondents on topics of public interest, which should be addressed to our branch office, and be accompanied by the name of the writer, not necessarily for publication, but as a guarantee of good faith.

Subscribers will oblige by promptly notifying this office of any failure in the delivery of this paper.

TUESDAY - - - March 6, 1888.

Briefs.

The U. P. train was one hour late on Sunday evening.

The Georgia Minstrels held forth at Park City Saturday night, from whence they proceeded to Denver.

"Torquemada" will be again repeated some time during this week, it is expected, at the Court House.

COLLEEN BAXX is the title of the next dramatic entertainment to be produced by the Second Ward thespians.

There was no session of the First District Court in Ogden yesterday. It migrated to Provo for another sitting there.

There was a meeting of the Hose Company last evening, commencing at 7 o'clock, at which important business received attention.

The congregation at the Tabernacle on Sunday last were instructed in gospel truths by Elder A. H. Cannon and Bishop Edwin Stratford.

Do not forget the public literary entertainment to be given this evening in the Union Opera House. Last night's performance was a pronounced success.

Snow, snow, wherever you go;
Up on the mountains, the valleys below;
Top of the houses, under your feet,
Slushy, wet, along the whole street;
Snow, snow, nasty, cold snow.

A performance which is always popular, and, in fact, eagerly sought after, is Uncle Tom's Cabin. Abbe's favorite combination will present it on the 20th in Ogden.

The eagle, which has for some time past been chained to an empty oer barrel, is now to be seen elevated on a brand new perch. The soaring king of birds is, however, still a captive. Is this not cruelty?

Minstrel shows are always well patronized in Ogden, hence most all the traveling troupes find their way here. On the 13th instant, Baird's Minstrels are booked to appear in the Union Opera House.

The Home Circle Orchestra is in full practice for the next concert, which will take place on Friday evening next, and as an addition of clarinet, G. trombone and flute artists are engaged, the city is on the qui vive; they expect a musical treat, and they will get it.

We have seen it stated that the mate was so grand in Utah that he came reluctantly in December. Winter joyously skipped in February and year would seem to be an exception, for and seem to be in no hurry to depart.

The Typographic Union of Ogden in the Social Hall, meeting on Sunday usual routine. The business having been gone through, the reports of the various committees were read and approved. The union seems to be held among the members that the prospects of the Union are bright.

We do not hear anything more just now about the proposal to buy out the Ogden woolen mills and the formation of a company to run them. The work is progressing, nevertheless, under the patient care of the Chamber of Commerce manufacturing committee. The project was not "born to blush unseen," as time will amply prove. Ogden will yet become, and before very long, too, the market of the west for woolen goods.

"G. Whizzer" is the signature adopted by a new writer on the Optic. In his maiden effort he describes the depot building in this city as being "unique in its ugliness, unique in its want of accommodations, and unique in itself, in its uniqueness." His description of the depot is about as unique as his article, although we think the latter has decidedly the advantage, as it is certainly entertaining, if not elegant, neither of which qualities dare our depot lay any claim to.

Handbook of Ogden.

Under the heading of "Handbook," Saturday's Optic contains the following:

"Without any attempt at being invidious we claim to be able to produce a better pamphlet (illustrated at that) on Ogden and surroundings than has ever yet been produced, either by Kenner & Wallace, Haeffel & Cannon, McDaniel, the Salt Lake concern, or others. Past experience is a mighty help for present improvement and future achievement.

The forthcoming Handbook of Ogden will be a publication of unique character—one that will be a credit to the community as well as to the compilers." There's nothing like it—undiluted, unmitigated gall we mean. It's an essential to success in life.

New Map.

Washington Jenkins, Esq., the efficient and genial city and county surveyor, has just completed an elegant map of Weber County, showing the topography, roads, and school districts of the county. The various school districts are distinguishable by colored designations. Mr. Jenkins can be congratulated on the work, as it not only shows painstaking accuracy in execution, but is the result of a thorough survey of the entire county. It will doubtless be found immensely useful.

Personals.

Judge Henderson went to Provo Sunday night.

A. PRABODY, of New York, came in yesterday.

J. B. BLATTERMAN, of Louisville, Ky., is at the Broom.

HENRY MARTIN, of the Riverside Stock Farm, is in town.

H. WHARTON, of Kentucky, is a visitor to the Junction City.

H. H. HENDERSON, clerk of the First District Court, took the south-bound train Sunday.

Police Court.

Isaac Smith, plain drunk, arrested on Saturday, was brought before Judge Dee yesterday, and paid the forfeit assessed, $10.00, and peacefully departed.

Rumored Lynching.

DETROIT, March 4.—It is rumored here to-night that Homer Hart and Oliver Hart, father and son, of Mount Pleasant, who were arrested on Friday, on the charge of assaulting the 5-year-old daughter of the last named, have been lynched. There is no telephone communication with the place, and the telegraph office being closed, particulars are not likely to be heard to-night.

Big Strike Threatened.

CHICAGO, March 4.—At a meeting, today, 1,200 carpenters, members of the Knights of Labor, resolved to strike on March 15th, if their recent demand of $73c. an hour for an eight-hour day was not complied with. Carpenters are also threatening to tie up all building operations in the city next month if their demands for 35c. an hour are not conceded.

A Bloody Fight.

SAKIM, March 4.—Suakim was attacked to-day by a large force of rebels. After four hours' fighting the rebels retired, leaving several hundred killed and wounded on the field. On the British side, Colonel Tap and five Egyptians were killed and fourteen wounded. The British gunboats Dolphin and Albacore assisted the guard of the city and poured a deadly fire on the retreating rebels.

Apology Demanded.

ROME, March 4.—Premier Crispi sent telegrams to the Italian ambassador at Paris, instructing him to demand of the French government the punishment of fifteen French soldiers who stopped some Italian railway officials at Modane, and by threatening them with bayonets, forced them to kneel before them.

Unable to Meet Engagements.

NEW YORK, March 5.—George T. Dixon, cotton broker, has announced his inability to meet his engagements. W. V. King and J. H. Gann made similar announcements.

That Tired Feeling.

Afflict nearly every one in the spring. The system having become accustomed by the warm days of winter, is weakened by the cold days of the changing season, and readily yields to attacks of disease. Dr. J. C. Sarsaparilla is just the remedy needed. It tones and builds up every part of the body, and also expels all impurities from the blood. Try it this season.

The Patriot's Remains.

ST. LOUIS, March 5.—The body of John J. Meaney arrived here to-day on the steamer Wyoming, from New York, and was taken to Ennis. The proceedings of the party accompanying the body were watched by detectives.
